

Instant info: NWU Honours Bursary Scheme 2022

Web address for application forms: <http://studies.nwu.ac.za/studies/bursaries-and-loans>

The NWU postgraduate bursary scheme aims to provide financial support to promising postgraduate students who cannot afford tertiary education and to give recognition to students who perform well academically. The NWU postgraduate bursary scheme is in line with the strategic objectives of the University as explained in the Institutional Plan.

NB: Electronic online applications only

A: NWU Honours bursary – Closing date: 31 March 2022

Bursary Conditions:

1. Application for the bursary must be done annually on the prescribed application form before or on 31 March 2022.
1. This bursary is available only for students that register for a full-time prescribed Honours degree (Postgraduate diplomas and PGCE included). Part-time and/or occasional students as well as working students don't qualify. Working students are defined as students who work for an employer, earning a salary and where work is the main activity.
2. The bursary is valid for one (1) year only. Bursary holders must complete the Honours degree within a grace period of 1 (one) year.
3. Students from other universities must attach an academic record of the preceding qualifying degree.
4. Students receiving bursaries from Statutory Councils such as the NRF and other outside institutions may apply for a top-up Honours bursary up to but not exceeding the maximum amount of R113 000 subject to the bursary amounts specified below. The University reserves the right to cancel or adjust the Honours bursary if the amount of R113 000 is exceeded.
5. The bursary amount is repayable if a student fails to comply with any of the conditions, terminates studies or does not complete the course within the prescribed period.
6. The University reserves the right, should circumstances be justified, to alter the guidelines, conditions and values of the bursary without prior notice to the applicant.
